

Magnolia Point Women's Club
Meeting October 10, 2018
MPGCC Dining Room

President Cheryle Newman welcomed members and guests at 11:00am.

Kathie Cornell made the motion to accept the minutes of the September 12, 2018 meeting. The motion was seconded and passed.

The following guests were introduced: Michelle Veal, daughter of Betty Holmes, Cindy Friddle, daughter-in-law of Kathy Friddle and Katy Willis, daughter of Judy O'Neill.

BOUTIQUE: Eloise Burman asked for donations for raffles, the silent auction and empty baskets. Food Truck vendors have been secured and she will be asking for volunteers for the event.

CEB: Kathie Cardon reported that we have reimbursed teachers for their classroom purchases and the nurse's station has been provided with $250 in underwear, socks and clothing.

PROGRAMS: Sandy Waldrup thanked all for attending this meeting and luncheon and for donating over 30 bras for the Buddy Bus.

SOCIAL: Kim Belcher reminded us of jewelry making following the November meeting and RSVP's will be required as a bracelet will be purchased for each member attending. December will be the Christmas Potluck at the Senior Center. Plans for next year to include tour of Castle Ottis, a picnic in Spring Park and boat cruise in St. Augustine. Details will be after the holidays.

MAGGIE'S MEALS: Pam Brame reported we are now packing 153 bags, including the junior high.

KANS FOR K9s: Carrie Cardascia announced there will be a matching donor for our collections in November and encouraged us to continue to place our beverage aluminum cans at both gates.

TRUNK OR TREAT: Cheryle Newman thanked everyone for the candy donations today and candy can still be dropped off at her home and the home of Patty Bransford.

CHARITY NIGHT AT THE PUB: On Tuesday, October 16 from 5:00-8:00pm, the country club will donate 7% of food sales in The Pub. Diners must tell their server they support the women's club.

NEW BUSINESS: Joe Chao is donating one half of his home inspection fees to us for scholarships and the other half to the J. P. Hall Children's Charities. This was approved by the board. Joe is fully licensed.

Kim Belcher moved to adjourn the meeting at 11:25am. Jan Morse seconded and the motion passed.

Jeannie Blaylock was our guest speaker, delighting us with her wonderful stories of her interest and enthusiasm for the Breast Cancer Buddy Bus project. She has raised over $77,000 and was so appreciative of our donations. In addition, Cheryle Newman presented her with a $500.00 check. Jeannie was available for questions and photo ops, but could not stay for lunch due to hurricane reporting duties at First Coast News.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marlene Jacobs

Recording Secretary.
