

Magnolia Point Women's Club
Minutes of the January 9, 2019 General Meeting
MPGCC Dining Room

President Cheryle Newman opened the meeting at 3:30pm with a welcome and request for motion to accept minutes from November 14, 2018. LeAnne Bargamin made the motion, it was seconded and passed.

Guests were Jean Costa, friend of Susie Snow and Marlene Jacobs, and Gail Gilrain, friend of Grace Barber. Both ladies gave short bios and took applications for membership.

BOUTIQUE: Eloise Burman reported a profit of more than $5,500.00

CEB: Cheryle Newman reported for Kathie Cardon that we purchased Christmas gifts for 72 students, which included a $50 Winn Dixie gift card for each family.

LUMINARIES: Grace Barber announced that 1,400 kits were sold for $7,000.00 sold plus $1,700.00 in donations for a total of $8,700.00. She thanked all the block captains and helpers.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Cheryle Newman reported for Nancy Mills that the deadline for applications is March 29. A donation of $100 was given to our scholarship fund by an anonymous donor.

SOCIAL: Kim Belcher reminded members of the Bunco Luncheon on Tuesday, January 15 at 11:30am. Upcoming events include: on February 26 a tour of St. Mary's Episcopal and First Presbyterian Church of GCS and on Sunday, March 24, a member appreciation family picnic at Spring Park at 3pm.

MEMBERSHIP: Marguerite Martin confirmed 253 current members.

MAGGIES MEALS: Pam Brame reported we are now packing for 164 students. The Elks Lodge of GCS donated $1,000.00, which will feed 10 students for one year.

DIRECTORY ADS: LeAnne Bargamin requested members to share names of businesses that they frequent so she can contact them to buy an ad for our directory, which will be distributed in May. All profits will benefit our scholarship fund.

FINANCE: Susan Mitchell announced that a new account for scholarships will be opened at Vystar Credit Union.

FUNDRAISING: Shirley Orvosh raffled two tickets to OPCT's comedy "The Dixie Swim Club," which raised $90 with Grace Barber being the winner. Next event is hosting the play "One Toe in the Grave" at the Orange Park Community Theatre on March 7.

SUNSHINE: Susie Snow reported a card and flowers sent to Ursula Hundt.

GRANTS: Nancy Nettuno reported that two seats were confirmed for January 16, 2019 for the "Story Telling" workshop sponsored by the Reinhold Foundation.

OLD BUSINESS: Cheryle Newman thanked Tammy Skipper for completing the data survey for the Boutique.

NEW BUSINESS: A raffle will be held at the April meeting for a quilt made by Sue Dake. Tickets will be sold starting at the February meeting.

Marlene Jacobs announced Eron Smith will now be the Movie Monday coordinator and encouraged members to join that fun event.

Our club received a check from the Rothfels for our charity night at the Clubhouse.

Meeting was adjourned at 4:00pm with a motion by Jola Greiner. The motion was seconded.

Programs Chairman Sandy Waldrup introduced chiropractor Dr. June Gentle for an amazing program about health, wellness, preventative and rehabilitative services.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marlene Jacobs
