Minutes of the August 14, 2019 General Meeting
Clay Council on Aging, Green Cove Springs

New members Resa Reed and Lea Ellenburg were introduced with each giving a short bio. Guest Brenda Frey also attended.

BOUTIQUE: Jola Greiner reported that she has her volunteers working on vendors, online solicitations, banners and advertising. The date is set for November 11, 2019 from 10:00am to 4:00pm at Sullivan Hall at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

FUNDRAISING: Shirley Orvosh had the Social Committee model the new aprons to be sold for $10.00 each. Orders are now being taken and will be delivered after the boutique. The aprons will be worn by volunteers at the boutique. The fabric for the flowers was donated by Phyllis Boyd.

Shirley will also be selling note cards. Details to follow. The beautiful magnolia on the note card was designed by deceased member Dolores Forslund. New ideas for fundraising are welcome.

The raffle for two (2) Beauty And The Beast tickets at the OPCT raised $103 and won by Eron Smith.

As there were no more items on the agenda, President Pam Brame adjourned the meeting at 3:15pm.

SOCIAL: Susan Hanline and her committee invited all members and guests to the ice cream table, which had many choices of toppings, plus cookies.

PROGRAM: Sandy Waldrup, Marty Essex and Debbie Shvetzov explained the game "What Magnolia Women Say." It was a very fun time with close scores and prizes for the first and second place teams.
