After a short break, Program Chairperson, Sandy Waldrup introduced Anna Zirbel, Executive Director at the Thrasher-Horne Center.

Anna gave an interesting bio, including her growing up in the Midwest, having a passion for the arts, and realized she had no talent for singing or dancing, so chose to pursue the business end of theater. She then gave us the program for upcoming events and explained how each was selected for the new season. She invited members to tour the center as a group.
