

Magnolia Point Women's Club

Minutes of the November 10, 2021 General Meeting

President Lorna Broughton called the meeting to order at 3:30pm in the Crystal Dining Room of the Magnolia Point Golf and Country Club. A motion was made to accept the minutes from the October 13, 2021 meeting by Kim Belcher, seconded by Jola Greiner and the motion passed unanimously.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Lorna Broughton.

Welcome- Friends of the Green Cove Springs Library displayed a Harry Potter Quilt. Raffle tickets for the quilt can be purchased after the meeting and the drawing will be December 21st.

Treasurer's Report- Susan Mitchell announced that the Board unanimously voted to not have a GCS Charity Drive this year as we are not in need of the funding.

Committee Reports-

Communications-Historian- Dee Pratt continues to supervise the digitizing and storage of the MPWC scrapbooks at the Clay Historical Archives. Randy Harris of the Clay County Historical Society has been assisting. Randy is at the museum/historical society office on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month between 1:00 and 3:00 should you want to physically see the scrapbooks.

GCS Schools- Lorna reported for Kathie Cardon that CEB needs knickknacks/costume jewelry, etc. for the Christmas Closet in the Cagle Store. There are three neighborhood locations where you can drop off items: Susan Mitchell's, Linda Werring's, and Melody Johnson's homes. The Clay High JV Football dinner on October 21st was a success thanks to Sandy and Bob Hricik, Jola Greiner, and Kim Belcher.

Grants- Lorna reported for Betty Alix that the Reinhold Foundation has provided a list of leadership classes available. The classes have an application deadline of November 17.

Maggie's Meals- Suzanne Foster reported that Pam Brame continues to work with Principal Sheree Cagle to identify students who need Maggie's Meals. We have 61 children currently. Pam and Kit Seiferd thoroughly cleaned out the portable and Friday, November 5, was the first day for packing bags.

Member Activities- Linda Werring announced that today's guest speaker is Attorney Dale Wilson on estate planning. The Stetson Mansion tour is November 15th. Be at the mansion at 11:00. December's luncheon will be on the 8th of December at 11:30 at the Elks Lodge. The MPWC will provide fried chicken and attendees will contribute sides and desserts. Members will receive an email to RSVP. Carpooling is highly recommended due to limited parking. The January meeting program will be photographer Dave Petraglia.

Membership/ Hospitality- Jola Greiner hosted a wine and cheese party for new residents and prospective members October 24 with 23 in attendance. Kim Belcher and Jola Greiner are also collecting holiday decorations for the neighborhood. Contact Jola if you want to volunteer to contribute and/or help decorate.

Helping Hands- Suzanne Foster reported changes to the Sunshine Committee's Guidelines to make them more clear.

Ways and Means- Luminaries- Brenda Frey- Block Captains have begun to pick up their packets. Assembly was Friday, November 5th. Sales begin November 12th through December 10th. Kits cost $7.50 each and Luminary night is the 11th of December.

Old Business- Lorna Broughton reported for Cindy Triay and showed us the poster the Special Olympics Golf Team made and signed thanking the Women's Club for their new golf shirts.

New Business- Lorna reported that Vice President Debbie Shvetzov is resigning due to her pending move from Magnolia Point. There is a need for a new Vice President to replace her. Contact Lorna Broughton if you are interested in serving as Vice President.

Barbara Szymanski reported for Cheryle Newman that the Sacred Heart Catholic Church is sponsoring a Boy Scout troop that collects aluminum cans. If you would like your aluminum cans to go to a worthy cause, you can drop clean cans off in the designated bin at the back of the church parking lot. Cans should no longer be left at the gatehouse or back gate.

$1.00 Commercials- Linda Werring promoted the need for Neighborhood Block Captains; Dee Pratt promoted the Friends of the Green Cove Springs Library Harry Potter quilt raffle ($5 for one ticket; $10 for three tickets); Anna Weidner presented the MPWC with a $100.00 donation from the sale of her earrings; Barbara Adams promoted 1st Choice Exteriors Roof Cleaning.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 4:25pm.

Respectfully submitted

Brenda Frey

Recording Secretary

Note: Minutes were approved via email vote the week of February 11, 2022.