Sharon Taylor of Mary Kay Cosmetics, was introduced by Sandy Waldrup for a program of make up for mature women. Three members were used to show four different looks:

- ▶ Debbie Spurrier was chosen to show a "less" make up look.
- ▶ Cheryle Newman modeled two looks, one on each side of her face - a day time glamor on one side and a night time party look on the other.
- ▶ Marty Essex chose a professional daytime work make up style. Sharon was very informative with wonderful tips.

Minutes of the August 14, 2019 General Meeting
Clay Council on Aging, Green Cove Springs

President Pam Brame opened the meeting at 3:00pm with a welcome and request for motion to accept minutes from the previous meeting. Nancy Nettuno moved to accept the July 10, 2019 minutes. Marsha Zupan seconded and the motion was approved.

New members Resa Reed and Lea Ellenburg were introduced with each giving a short bio. Guest Brenda Frey also attended.

BOUTIQUE: Jola Greiner reported that she has her volunteers working on vendors, online solicitations, banners and advertising. The date is set for November 11, 2019 from 10:00am to 4:00pm at Sullivan Hall at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

FUNDRAISING: Shirley Orvosh had the Social Committee model the new aprons to be sold for $10.00 each. Orders are now being taken and will be delivered after the boutique. The aprons will be worn by volunteers at the boutique. The fabric for the flowers was donated by Phyllis Boyd.

Shirley will also be selling note cards. Details to follow. The beautiful magnolia on the note card was designed by deceased member Dolores Forslund. New ideas for fundraising are welcome.

The raffle for two (2) Beauty And The Beast tickets at the OPCT raised $103 and won by Eron Smith.

As there were no more items on the agenda, President Pam Brame adjourned the meeting at 3:15pm.

SOCIAL: Susan Hanline and her committee invited all members and guests to the ice cream table, which had many choices of toppings, plus cookies.

PROGRAM: Sandy Waldrup, Marty Essex and Debbie Shvetzov explained the game "What Magnolia Women Say." It was a very fun time with close scores and prizes for the first and second place teams.

Magnolia Golf & Country Club - Crystal Dining Room

President Pam Brame opened the meeting at 2:30pm with a welcome and a request to accept the minutes of the August 14, 2019 meeting. Kim Belcher moved to accept the minutes and Patty Bransford seconded. The motion passed.

Pam announced there was no board meeting in September due to Hurricane Dorian.

SOCIAL: Kim Belcher explained the program/social for the October meeting. The "Bring and Take" will allow each member to bring up to five items to exchange. Doors will open at 3:00pm and members will be issued tickets as they arrive with their items. Tickets will be used for members to "shop" in the order in which they arrived. The exchange will take place after the regular meeting on October 9th. Leftover items will be donated.

MAGGIE'S MEALS: Chairman Patty Bransford reported we packed for 132 CEB students in the 3rd week, but we do not have a list from the Junior High.

CEB: Kathie Cardon announced we are waiting for information from the school regarding students' needs. Kathie and Pam will meet with the new principal to discuss what we can do for the school and students.

BOUTIQUE: Jola Greiner updated the progress of her committees, requested donations for silent auction items and is still looking for new vendors. The boutique is November 11 at Sullivan Hall at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church on Fleming Island from 10am to 4pm. A sign up sheet for volunteers was passed around and there will be more specific information at the October meeting. We will again have food trucks this year.

SCHOLARSHIP: Patrice Johnson reported for Nancy Mills by giving a brief description of procedures suggested for the coming year. Names were drawn to fill the two vacancies on the committee and Kathy Friddle and Sara Spurrier will serve.

As all business on the agenda was completed, President Pam Brame adjourned the meeting at 3:00pm.

**Prior to our meeting, a beautiful luncheon and game of BINGO was enjoyed by members. A big thank you to Paul Orvosh, husband of Shirley, who called BINGO and entertained our members. A "chicken dance" performance by the ladies who goofed on their winning BINGO's was another highlight. Paul also read a moving poem and we had a moment of silence in honor of all the fallen on this date of 9/11.

LUMINARIES: Grace Barber announced October 21st is set for assembling kits at her home. She is pleased that most streets are covered for sales and deliveries by past volunteers and passed a sign-up sheet for remaining streets. Grace plans to deliver kits to the clubhouse for pick up. Luminary event is December 14th.

PROGRAMS: Sandy Waldrup reported our November speaker will be Anna Zirbel, Director of Marketing at the Thrasher-Horne Center. Anna will speak on upcoming shows and changes taking place at the center. Christmas cards will be distributed to members to send to our military serving out of the country.

SOCIAL: Susan Hanline and committee confirmed December 11, 2019 at Senior Center for our Christmas lunch and gift exchange.

NEW BUSINESS: The owners of MPGCC requested we ask members to decorate their golf carts and participate in the special Halloween event on October 31st. Susan Mitchell explained the plan for this children's event, which will include a costume contest, dinner buffet and candy from golf cart owners. Cost is $10 per child. More details will follow.

As all items on the agenda were completed, President Pam Brame adjourned the meeting at 3:52pm

Respectfully submitted.

Magnolia Point Women's Club
Minutes of the November 13, 2019 General Meeting
Magnolia Point Golf & Country Club

President Pam Brame opened the meeting at 3:38pm with a welcome and requested a motion for acceptance of minutes October 9, 2019. Jola Greiner moved to accept the minutes, Debbie Shvetzov seconded and the motion passed.

MEMBERSHIP: Marguerite Martin reported we now have 256 members.

GRANTS: Nancy Nettuno announced grants: $15,000 from Clay Electric Foundation, $1,200 from Comcast Cares and $1,000 from the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

CEB: Kathie Cardon reported the charity donation letters were mailed to all residents. She plans to meet with the school personnel to finalize names of students for the Christmas gifts.

DIRECTORY ADS: LeAnne Bargamin asked members to remember to visit businesses that purchased ads and to use their services when possible.

HOSPITALITY: Jane Corby announced all new residents have been greeted as of this date.

SOCIAL: Susan Hanline reminded members of the Christmas Luncheon at the Senior Center on December 11 at noon. Members can bring a $10-$15 wrapped gift if they want to participate in the optional gift exchange. RSVP's will be required. Plans are in the works to tour the Amazon Fulfillment Center in January or February.

PROGRAMS: Debbie Shvetzov explained the procedure for addressing Christmas cards to our military. Several cards were distributed on every table and members wrote personal notes and signed each card. Sandy Waldrup announced an optional cookie exchange at the Christmas Luncheon. In January, our speaker will be a Secret Service agent.

BOUTIQUE: Chairperson Jola Greiner thanked members for assisting in all areas of the boutique. She then announced a gross income of $11,000.

CGS SCHOOLS: Danielle Rourke sent a note from the JV Football team, thanking the MPWC for the wonderful dinner we provided before a game this Fall.

As all items on the agenda were completed, Pam Brame adjourned the meeting at 3:50pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

After a short break, Program Chairperson, Sandy Waldrup introduced Anna Zirbel, Executive Director at the Thrasher-Horne Center.

Anna gave an interesting bio, including her growing up in the Midwest, having a passion for the arts, and realized she had no talent for singing or dancing, so chose to pursue the business end of theater. She then gave us the program for upcoming events and explained how each was selected for the new season. She invited members to tour the center as a group.
