

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS – June 2023**

- The Finance Committee met May 30. Linda Werring will present a full budgetary report at the July 5 Board meeting.
- Membership dues plus a $5.00 late fee, total of $40.00, will be collected until July.
- Directory Ads sales ended May 31. Anticipated delivery to the printer of the new directory is no later than the week of July 10.
- June meeting program: Scholarship Award Recognition. The four Clay High senior girl winners will share their stories. The girls will be available for MPWC members to personally meet following the program.
- Cindy Triay, our new Activities Director, is putting together an impressive list of meeting programs and socials.
- The Clay Education Foundation initiated the Summer School Supply Drive, “Tools 4 Clay.” MPWC will be collecting NEW classroom supplies in support of this project through August. An explanatory email was sent to MPWC members on June 8.
- Starting at the July 12 general meeting, members may purchase tickets for a 50/50 raffle to help fund new items for our Arts & Crafts Fair baskets and silent auction.
- The last day for Maggie’s Meals was May 25. Thank you to all who, over the years, volunteered for this important endeavor. Left-over food was transferred to the CEB Pantry, and the remaining monies will be used to provide food for families in Clay County.
- Diane Lochner, our new Hospitality Chair, and Pam Young have been working diligently to update the packets that will be delivered to new residents.
- Please encourage your non-member neighbors to join MPWC.
- Officer and Committee Reports will be attached to the June 14 general meeting minutes.
